

Summer Veterinary Assistant

New Pittsburg Veterinary Clinic is a totally dairy five-person practice in Wooster, Ohio.

Drs. Richard E Wiley, Bradford L Garrison, David P White, Mike L Finney, Shaun Wellert

This person will be assigned to a veterinarian on daily basis providing complete exposure to all facets of dairy production, medicine, emergency services and receive a wage. At the completion of the summer this student will be proficient in rectal palpation, having palpated several thousand cows. Will have performed solo LDA surgery. Above all this student will be confident to step into frontline dairy practice.

Position: Veterinary Assistant

Duties: Inventory stocking of trucks, on farm inventory, treatment recording, treatment administration (injections, IV, IM, SQ, oral fluids, bolus), physical exams, surgical prep, cleaning of practice vehicle, specimen collection (blood, feces, milk), lab submissions. Lab procedures: milk cultures, sensitivities, data collection, forage particle separation, BCS, etc.

Hours/ Schedule: 7:30am – 4:00pm Mon.-Fri., 8:00am – 12:00pm Sat. during summer months. Time off for other activities is available.

Compensation: $3000.00 for 10 week internship. Housing available.

Selection Criteria

- Priority consideration is given to an Ohio State University veterinary student who is AABP member between their 2nd and 3rd year
- The candidate who is best prepared by prior dairy experience and indicates the greatest commitment to clinical dairy practice will be selected
- Please submit a resume and letter of intent, which will include dairy/ agriculture/ food animal experiences, references, and future goals after graduation.
- An min 1 day interview is required

Submission deadline is March 1, 2016
Selection notification is March 15, 2016

Please see our website at www.newpittsburgvetclinic.com

The veterinarians at New Pittsburg Veterinary Clinic are extremely proud to have been part of the career development of our past summer students:

- Gabe Middleton 2006
- Craig Zimmerly 2007
- Barney Rumpke 2008
- Shaun Wellert 2009
- Gabe Coleman 2010
- Michael Brandon 2011
- Katie Shaw 2012
- Jonathon Angel 2013
- Kevin Jacque 2014
- Deanna Shenk 2015